

Mid-America Conference on Preaching
October 18-19, 2001

Workshop Topics

Dr. William Combs

Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary – Allen Park, MI

“John Wesley’s Influence on the Teaching of Sanctification in Fundamentalism” (p. 11)
“Sanctification: A Call for a Return to the View of Our Baptist Forefathers” (p. 22)

Dr. R. Bruce Compton

Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary – Allen Park, MI

“II Thessalonians 3:6-15 and Second-Degree Separation” (p. 35)

Dr. Dan Davey

Colonial Baptist Church / Central Baptist Theological Seminary – Virginia Beach, VA

“The Preacher’s Philosophy of Preaching” (p. 45)
“The Preacher’s Priority: Subject Mastery” (p. 55)

Dr. David Doran

Inter-City Baptist Church / Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary - Allen Park, MI

“The Fragmenting of Fundamentalism” (p. 62)
“Where the Rubber Meets the Road: The Application of Ecclesiastical Separation” (p.65)
“The Priority and Power of Biblical Truth” (p. 68)
“Reforming or Re-Forming Fundamentalism? Rethinking the Rethinking Process” (p.71)
“The Pastor, Theology, and Preaching” (p. 77)
“Evangelicalism: A House United or House Divided?” (p. 82)
“Fundamentalism and Personal Separation” (p. 86)
“Perpetuating Fundamentalism in the 21st Century” – General Session (take notes on p. 4)

Dr. Sam Horn

Northland Baptist Bible College – Dunbar, WI

“Inspiration: The New Battle Ground for Truth” (p. 88)

“Thematic Preaching: Using Exegetical Methods to Develop Topical Sermons “ (p. 92)

“Ministering in a Postmodern Society” (p. 95)

“Preaching That Shapes the Next Generation: How to Preach Theology to Teens” (p.115)

Dr. Robert McCabe

Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary – Allen Park, MI

“The Old Testament Foundation for Separatism” (p. 118)

Dr. Rolland McCune

Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary- Allen Park, MI

“Is There, Or Should There Be, A Distinctly Fundamentalist Apologetics Method?”
(p.133)

“Has Fundamentalism Completely Shed the Social Gospel?” (p. 149)

Dr. Chuck Phelps

Trinity Baptist Church – Concord, NH

“The Responsibility of the Ready Scribe: Seeing Ezra as a Role Model for Every Preacher” (p. 156)

“Proud to be Called a ‘Devotional Preacher?’ Adding Illustration and Application to
Your Explanation and Organization” (p. 159)

“The Attack of the Contemporary Christian Counseling Movement on Preaching and Fundamentalism in the 21st Century” (p. 160)

Dr. Gerald Priest

Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary – Allen Park, MI

“What’s In a Name? The Legacy of Historic Fundamentalism” (p. 164)

“A Fundamentalist Response to ‘Pilgrims on the Sawdust Trail: Evangelical Conversations’ [October 2-3, 2001]” (p. 184)

Mr. Mark Snoberger

Detroit Baptist Theological Seminary – Allen Park, MI

“Engaging the Enemy...But on Whose Terms? An Assessment of Responses to the Charge of Anti- Intellectualism” (p. 199)

LADIES SPEAKERS

Mrs. Grace Albright

First Baptist Church – Sterling Heights, MI

“Do I Have to Do Everything?” (p. 209)

Mrs. Claudia Doran

Inter-City Baptist Church – Allen Park, MI

[workshop outline distributed in class] (p. 210)

Mrs. Amy Johnson

Inter-City Baptist Church – Allen Park, MI

“Fundamentalism and Feminism in the Twenty-First Century” (p. 211)

Mrs. Marian Townes

Inter-City Baptist Church – Allen Park, MI

“How to be a Preacher’s Wife and Be Content” (p. 215)