

DETROIT BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
SUMMER SCHOOL 2021

The following is a list of which courses will be offered, the weeks involved, and the professors who will teach. All courses are available for MDiv or ThM credit.

Registration is now open in Populi (<https://dbts.populiweb.com/>). Please see your advisor or contact the Registrar with any questions.

First Session (Two-Week Module): May 18–28 (8:00 AM–11:50 AM)

OT640 Old Testament Theology (2 hours), Dr. Snoeberger
Room 202

A systematic study of the major Bible doctrines from the standpoint of the Old Testament believer. Since stress in this course is on the progress of revelation, appeals for support to the New Testament are minimized; discontinuities between OT theology and Christian theology, however, are targeted for special emphasis.

Second Session (One-Week Module): May 31–June 3 (8:00 AM–3:50 PM)

CC525 Missions and Culture (2 hours), Dr. Trumbull
Room 202

This course will focus on a pastor/missionary's task of living and ministering in a cross-cultural context. It will include a study of ethnography, intercultural communication, and cultural anthropology.

Third Session (Three-Weekend Module): May 14–15, June 18–19, July 16–17
(Fridays, 5:30 PM–9:30 PM; Saturdays, 8:00 AM–3:00 PM)

PT522 Basics of Biblical Counseling (2 hours), Dr. Elwart
Room 202

This course covers the instructional material in Phase 1 of the ACBC certification process, including an orientation to biblical counseling, various theories of counseling, family relations, frequent issues, and medical issues. This course does not apply toward the biblical counseling concentration.
